West Islip Marina Park, located at the terminus of Beach Road, is a multi-functional regional park. Offering residents access to a beach, boat slips and a launching ramp for those wishing to trailer and launch boats, and a pirate ship playground. Picnic tables and barbecues allow residents to dine while at the beach. The West Islip Little League uses and maintains the baseball fields. During the summer the Y.M.C.A. runs a sailing program from this location. This beach is small and quiet, perfect for residents who are looking for a peaceful beach experience with smaller crowds.
