

Town of Islip Department of Environmental Control

Town Supervisor Angie Carpenter
DEC Commissioner Martin Bellew

Town of Islip

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Title: Environmental Aide, Part-Time

Location: Shellfish Culture Facility, East Islip, NY

Duration: April to September

Job Description:

The Environmental Aide will participate in all hatchery operations when needed. Responsibilities include maintenance of land-based and bay-based shellfish system, repairing equipment, helping with in-house operations such as algae production, larvae culturing, and broodstock monitoring. Must be able to lift 40 pounds.

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's Degree in marine science, marine biology, aquaculture, or equivalent education required.
- Basic knowledge on aquaculture, shellfish, and identification of local bay flora and fauna.
- Shellfish aquaculture experience preferred.

Contact Us:

Please send a short cover letter and your resume to,

mbyrnes@islipny.gov

cschect@islipny.gov